Picnic in the Watts Grove.

On Wednesday, May 20 a basket picnic will be held in the Watts grove, 2 1/2 miles north of Savannah. A platform for dancing will be erected on the grounds. Those who can bring croquet sets for their own use, are requested to do so. Twenty young men will be selected to raffle for the honor of crowning the "Queen of May." The names of the managers are sufficient to guarantee good order and management. Every body is invited to come, and all should bring their dinners who can, and enough for those who cannot.

Committee on order—R. A. Watts, J. Holt, J. T. Riggins.

Sentinel Encampment No. 11 Re-organized.

On Thursday evening of last week Sentinel Encampment No. 11, of this city, which has been dormant for a year or two, was resuscitated by the installation of the following officers for the ensuing year by Deputy Grand Patriarch L. T. Minurn. The regular meetings of the Encampment are on the first and third Thursdays in each month: Wm. Ent, C. P.; J. R. Eader, H. P.; J. R. Watts, Scribe; O. E. Paul, Treas.; J. F. Colburn, S. W.; J. G. Walker, J. W. After the work was over, a bounteous supper was partaken of, gotten up in Shedrick's best style.

Personal.

Hamp. Giddings now welcomes customers to Schuster's clothing store.

James McBrien, of Rosendale, was in the city on Tuesday.

Ed. Robinson, "Squire Holme, J. McDaniel, S. K. Faulkner, C. W. Douglas, and other solid farmers, were pleased to meet in Savannah on Tuesday.

The pleasant countenance of Wm. C. Smith, Esq., now of St. Joseph, in partnership with Litt. R. Lancaster, Esq., was seen on our streets on Tuesday.

"Dave" Harlan is enjoying leave of absence from messenger duty, and is sojourning at Savannah for a season.

Dr. John S. Logan, who has one of the largest orchards in the Northwest, says the prospects are splendid for an immense fruit crop.

The St. Louis Democrat says Hon. N. B. Brown passed through that city recently, en route to Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will remain for two or three months.

John Painter paid a flying visit to Savannah, Wednesday evening, looking well as ever.

Go and See Shedrick.

H. C. Shedrick thinks he could accommodate a few more boarders. This needs but to be known to secure him all he can serve, as his first class meals are proverbial. His soda water fountain is running and the cooling draughts therefrom please the palates of many.

Keep Cool.

Those who wish ice delivered regularly at their residence or place of business, should leave orders with J. L. Bennett, who will deliver ice in the city throughout the summer in quantities to suit and at a low rate.

From Rochester.

ROCHESTER, Mo., May 11, 1874.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN—The weather during the past week has been very fine, and farmers have been busily engaged in getting in their crops. As a consequence, business in town has been a little slack.

We noticed Mr. J. A. Bundy, of Galesburg, Illinois, in town one day last week.

Chas. F. Booher leaves to-day for Jefferson City to attend to some legal business. There are a few evil-minded persons who insinuate that he has gone to "learn a trade," but then no one pays any attention to them.

The Cheese Factory Building is about completed. Look out for the great celebration that will commemorate the successful termination of this gigantic undertaking. We will send you a full report of the proceedings, speeches, &c.

Weather colder, with the appearance of rain.

Items, like national currency, are scarce, and in demand. PRATOR.

Rosendale Items.

May 7, 1874.

This village is situated about seven miles north of Savannah, on the Hundred-and-two river, and is one of the best trading points in Andrew county.

The grist mill, owned by B. F. Posten, will soon be ready to run, and is said by Mr. Curtis, the builder, to be the best one in Northwest Missouri. Mr. A. M. Mesmer, the miller, is now at work on the burrs.

We have three dry goods and grocery stores. Mr. John Conway keeps at the old Robbins & Anderson stand. Mr. B. T. Beckett comes next, on the opposite side of the street, in the new house owned by John G. Gamble. There is a very neat millinery store at this house, kept by Mrs. Underwood, who has just received a fine stock of summer goods.

Mr. James McBrien comes next on the same side. He keeps at the old stand of Ennis Brothers, and was absent in St. Joe yesterday purchasing new goods.

Mr. J. C. Belchamber is our merchant tailor. Mr. Elisha Cobb has a very neat drug and grocery store (he is also a good fisherman).
Three blacksmiths, Peter Hunter, Ben. Nickols, and Wm. Smith, do work to suit their customers.

The Valley House is a nice village hotel, kept by Dr. Corder. The boarders say Aunt Corder is a good cook.
Mr. James Gwinn is teaching our school, and gives satisfaction.

Rev. M. L. Anderson was recently ill from a bilious attack, but is up and around again.

The health in our country is good—no cerebro spinal meningitis.

Dr. N. B. Brown, our Representative, has absconded for parts unknown; some say to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for his health, but Judge Myers thinks he went down to join Brooks' or Baxter's army, as he took with him a copy of Casey's Infantry Tactics.

We eat bread from flour made by C. P. Miller & Sons at your place. We pronounce it very good.

Crops look fine. Farmers at work planting corn. Weather dry; need rain very much.

WHITESVILLE, Mo., May 11, 1874.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN—I take the liberty of piping a few more notes, lest our little village sink into oblivion, or do something worse.

At last we have been made painfully cognizant of the fact that our town is composed chiefly of materials that are of a combustible character. On the evening of the 5th inst., Mr. Daum's store-room and shop caught fire and burned to the ground. It was insured, as I am informed, in the American Insurance Co. Loss about two thousand dollars.

Trade is a little dull this week, as farmers are busy planting corn.
H. Cline and Poppelwell & Huffman received a new supply of goods last week.

There was service held at the Christian church last Sunday by a minister from St. Joseph. A large congregation was in attendance.

Our school is doing well. The scholars are progressing in their several studies.

I was informed this morning of a mare (belonging to Mr. O. Peters of Empire Prairie) which is the mother of a pair of twins, one being a mule and the other a horse colt. I have not seen them and can not vouch for the truth of the story, but I am going to believe it and wish all to help me.

G. A. S. PEE.

Amazonia Items.

Since the saloon folks drank up all their stock of liquors to avoid being crusaded, the town has been unusually quiet; and, as they have not the means to obtain another stock, it looks as though we are to have a reign of quiet and order for some time to come.

The Amazonia Public School, under the efficient management of Miss Alice Jenks, is full to overflowing.

Dr. Rogers, C. J. Price, Jo Bond and others indulge in fishing.

A very fine quality of lime is being made here by Mr. L. Ensey, who understands how to burn lime to perfection. He has three large kilns in active operation. The lime is the same as the famous Alton lime, and the supply is inexhaustible.

A small break in the rip-raps occasioned some little trouble to the railroad company. No trains were delayed, however, in consequence; and a force of men is at work repairing the damage.

The pay car caused something of an inflation of currency here on Tuesday, and no one objected.

There was no way of accounting for the fact that the burglars who lately went through the depot and Rogers' drug store, passed by the most valuable articles, taking only that which was comparatively worthless, until it was discovered that a couple of bottles of a well-known bitters had been drunk, and then it was all clear.

Jack Clemens says that if the man who left his pipe in his corn crib, the other night, will come and prove his property, he will deliver it and charge nothing for the corn he took.

Maj. A. L. Brace has started a telegraph school here. He has opened three offices, with instruments at each. There is probably no place in Northwest Missouri affording better facilities for acquiring a practical knowledge of telegraphing.

Several thousand bushels of excellent wheat are being shipped by rail to St. Joe from here this week.

Flag Springs Items.

Farming is the order of the day now around Flag Springs. The weather has been favorable and farmers are busy planting corn and preparing their lands for planting. A large crop of corn will be planted.

The prospect for wheat is very flattering, and if the remainder of the season is favorable a large yield is expected.

The fruit prospect is also very flattering. A good wheat crop and plenty of fruit will raise the price of medicine for founders.

Our village furnishes no material for the crusaders. There is no whisky and no whisky sellers in or about this place.

We have two churches and two Sunday-schools, both in a flourishing condition. I think we can boast of having as moral a place as is in Northwest Missouri.

The grangers are still flourishing, but have worked in most of the material available.
MAX.

THE Democrats of Oregon held a convention and made all their nominations before they thought of the farmers. When they discovered their neglect, they were much alarmed and laid their heads together to correct the mistake. They finally hit upon a happy expedient. They had nominated an unknown party by the name of Brown. They didn't know exactly what his occupation was, but they resolved to call him a farmer. So they came out with loud praises for "Farmer Brown." Others might deceive them, but honest farmer Brown would prove faithful. There was much enthusiasm over Brown, and finally some rascally reporter went over in Brown's part of the State to see the candidate, and found him keeping a fine store, where he was selling Kentucky jeans at 150 per cent. profit. The newspaper man reported this fact, and added to its force by copying Brown's advertisement from a village paper, in which the agricultural storekeeper informed the people of his section that
I'll try and keep a good supply,
For it is always wanted;
So when you all come in to buy,
You'll not be disappointed.
Brown stock is now below par—(Herald.)

THE latest novel invention that we have seen an account of is a paper barrel. It is said, however, to be coming into pretty general use in Illinois, Iowa and other wheat growing States, and an agent is now endeavoring to introduce it into this state.

Obituary.

Died, of spinal meningitis, Mary Jane, wife of Smith McGinnis, April 25th, 1874, Andrew county, Mo.

After having lived the life of the righteous for many years, it has pleased a just God to call our beloved sister from labor here to the rest prepared for the people of God. May her meek Christian spirit be imitated by those with whom she mingled in life.

RESOLUTIONS BY GRAVEL WALL GRANGE.
At a regular meeting of the Gravel Wall Grange No. 867, of the Patrons of Husbandry, May 2, A. D. 1874, the following resolutions were presented by a committee and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Grange be instructed to publish these resolutions in the ANDREW COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

THE GRANGE.

Resolutions Adopted and Other Business Transacted by the Andrew County Council of Patrons of Husbandry on Tuesday.

The Council was very fairly attended on Tuesday by delegates from the twenty-four Granges in the county, when the late season and the existing fine corn-planting weather was considered.

Among other business which admits of publicity was the reference of the following Constitution and By-Laws of the "County Grange of Andrew County," to the various Granges for action:

CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNTY GRANGE OF ANDREW COUNTY.

ART. 1.—NAME.
This organization shall be known as the County Grange of Andrew County.

ART. 2.—OBJECTS.
The object of this organization shall be to aid, strengthen and encourage Subordinate Granges represented herein; to facilitate the transaction of business in buying, selling and shipping, and for such purposes as may seem for the good of the order.

ART. 3.—MEMBERSHIP.
Any Subordinate Grange in the county in good standing, on the payment of five dollars, annually, for each delegate, may become a member of this Grange, and shall be entitled to representation as follows: one delegate for every fifty fourth degree members, or fraction equal to thirty, provided each Subordinate Grange shall have at least one delegate. Said delegates to be elected at the regular annual election of Subordinate Granges.

ART. 4.—OFFICERS AND DUTIES.
The officers of this Grange shall be a M., O., Lec., S., A. S., Chap., Sec., Treas., and G. K., who shall perform the duties of such officers in Subordinate Granges; also an Executive Committee of five, who shall have charge of all business transactions when this Grange is not in session.

Sec. 1. Whenever deemed necessary, these shall be elected by this Grange, one or more county agents, who shall act under the instructions of the Executive Committee and this Grange.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the members of this Grange to deal with such agents in preference to any persons not connected with the order, provided such agents are acting in accordance with the rules and regulations of the order and their instructions.

Sec. 3. County Agents shall give bond in such sum as the Executive Committee may designate, and shall receive a commission of three per cent. on all purchases and sales made by him, provided such commission shall amount to his necessary expenses and $3 per day for time actually employed.

ART. 6.—AMENDMENTS.
No alteration, addition or amendment shall be made to this constitution without a vote of two-thirds of the members present, and no motion to amend shall be adopted at the same meeting at which it is proposed. Said amendments, when made, shall not go into effect until ratified by two-thirds of the Subordinate Granges represented herein.

BY-LAWS.

ART. 6.
Nothing in this constitution and by-laws shall be so construed as to prevent acting Masters of Subordinate Granges from taking part in the discussions, or holding office, but they shall not be entitled to vote unless regularly elected as delegates.

ART. 7.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.
1. Opening the Grange. 2. Reading minutes. 3. Appointment of committee. 4. Unfinished business. 5. New business. 6. Reports of committees. 7. Suggestions for the good of the order.

ART. 8.
These by-laws may be amended at any regular meeting of this Grange by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

The following report from the committee to whom was referred the question of establishing a manufactory of agricultural implements in the county, was presented and accepted:

To the Andrew County Council:

Your committee to whom was referred the subject of taking initiatory steps for the establishment of a manufactory of agricultural implements in this county, would respectfully represent that they have had the matter under advisement, and in view of the present depressed financial condition of the country, would recommend that no action be taken by the Council at this time, except the adoption and publication of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the duty of every Patron of Husbandry, and every other good citizen, to foster and encourage home manufactures, thereby creating a home market for many of the products of the farm, as well as saving cost of transportation on manufactured articles.

Resolved, That in our opinion, no point in Northwest Missouri presents a finer field for the manufacturing business, generally, than Andrew county.

Resolved, That we will patronize and encourage to the full extent of our ability such establishments in our midst.

Resolved, That we invite correspondence from parties desiring to engage in the manufacturing business in the West, and recommend that the Patrons of Husbandry, and citizens generally, take stock in such enterprises, should it become necessary to do so, in order to secure their location in our county.

A resolution was also adopted to the effect that the Secretaries of the various Granges, in making out statistical reports, should include all members of their Granges and all others who live within the limits of their jurisdiction; and it is recommended that the jurisdiction of each Grange be understood as extending from the geographical center of the Grange half way to adjoining Granges in each direction.
